Meet the Coaches

Kirk Wherritt enters his second season at the helm of the TIU Trojans. The native of Stevens Point, Wisconsin earned his Bachelor's Degree from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 2003 and began his life in football as a volunteer assistant and equipment manager at Wisconsin Lutheran College.

His next stop was Salt Lake City, Utah as he became an Offensive Assistant for future national championship coach Urban Meyer. Wherritt's offensive prowess helped lead the Utes to the Fiesta Bowl in 2005 as he assisted Dan Mullen with the quarterbacks.

After his stint with the Utes, he stayed in the Mountain West Conference as he followed Mike Sanford to the Runnin'Rebels of UNLV in 2005. He worked with the defensive line and in 2007 he moved over to the offensive side of the ball as an assistant under then Offensive Coordinator Todd Berry. Coach Wherritt cites coach Berry as one of his main football influences. He coached tight ends in his last season at UNLV and earned his Master's Degree in 2008.

Later in 2008, his travels brought him to Chicago and he immediately showed his coaching skills as he was named offensive coordinator for the Trojans. His head coaching dream became a blessed reality as he was appointed the head coach of the TIU Trojans.

Coach Wherritt led the Trojans to a win in their first game of the year which snapped a 19 game losing streak. Later in 2010, the Trojans had their highlight game as they erased a 34-0 deficit against Olivet Nazarene and won the game 41-40.

The philosophy of Coach Wherritt first and foremost for his players and staff is servant to God and recognizing the purpose God gave us in this life.

Coach Wherritt and his wife Keli reside in the Chicagoland area with their daughter Kenzie.

Brian Fish took over as the head coach of the Olivet Nazarene University football team in 2011. He's the eighth coach in the history of the program. He also serves as the offensive coordinator.

Fish spent the last five seasons at Sterling College (Kan.). Most recently, he served as the school's offensive coordinator and directed the 11th-best offense in the NAIA in 2007.

At Sterling, Fish also directed two mission trips (2008 and 2009) to Zhoukou, China, where his groups taught English in orphanages.

Prior to Sterling, Fish served as the quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator at Malone College (Ohio), where he helped direct one of the top passing offenses in the country in 2002 and 2004.

Fish holds two degrees from Olivet: a B.A. in biology (1997) and a M.A. degree in teaching (1999). He also served as a graduate assistant coach on Olivet's staff during the 1998 season.

Fish played tight end at Olivet and helped lead the Tigers to the NAIA National Championship game in 1998 — the most successful season in school history. That season, his senior year, he was named an NAIA All-American Honorable Mention, an All-MSFA First-Team selection and an NAIA Scholar-Athlete. He was also selected as the school's first recipient of the Dr. Selden Kelley Award for leadership in academics and athletics.

"I am very excited to return to Olivet, the place where much of my development and maturation as an adult occurred," Fish said. "I'm thrilled about the group of players I am able to recruit and coach here at ONU."

Fish and his wife, Jodi, have two children: one daughter, Culley, and one son, Levi.
